

July 22, 2020

Dear ICN Member:

In light of the continuing impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, we have transitioned the 2020 International Competition Network (ICN) Annual Conference to a virtual conference and we are pleased to invite you to attend on September 14-17, 2020.

We have retained the digital theme for this year's annual conference. ICN Working Groups will present work on competition policy and enforcement across a wide range of issues in the areas of advocacy, agency effectiveness, cartels, mergers, and unilateral conduct.

For nearly two decades, the ICN has engaged competition agencies and lawyers, economists, academics, and other non-governmental advisors (NGAs) from around the world in dynamic discussions and projects that foster mutual understanding and promote effective competition enforcement and policy worldwide. Your participation and views are vital to the ICN's mission to promote cooperation and convergence to the benefit of member agencies, consumers, and economies around the globe.

Please visit the ICN website: <https://www.internationalcompetitionnetwork.org/2020vac/> for the conference agenda. More information on the conference and how it can be viewed will be provided shortly. We are exploring options to make the virtual conference widely available to ICN members and NGAs.

We regret not being able to welcome you in person in Los Angeles as planned but look forward to seeing you virtually in September. If you or your colleagues have any questions about the conference, please contact Cynthia Lagdameo (clagdameo@ftc.gov or +1 212 607 2828) or Michelle Rindone (Michelle.Rindone@usdoj.gov or +1 646 852 4794).

Yours sincerely,
